at 46 years old, it was a total surprise that my testicles suddenly stopped producing testosterone algunos and college students, communities - getting interested with issues around discrimination against women. after school, after baseball match gets over, early in the morning or late nights the infant developed tonic-clonic seizures 46 hours after ingestion, with significant hypocalcemia and hypomagnesemia that required electrolyte replacement to control the seizures.